

Agriculture Grants or Technical Assistance: Programs, including financial assistance, to support local agricultural producers and expand and stabilize their operations.

Arts and Culture: Programs focused on promoting and preserving art and culture in communities.

Child Care Subsidies: Programs which provide financial assistance to eligible households that lack access to affordable childcare.

Community Arts & Culture Events: Financial support of community-level events that promote and art and culture.

Community Assistance Hubs: Community Assistance Hubs make it easier for local residents to access health, social, cultural, recreational and other resources available in their community in one spot. Hubs can be located in a physical building or accessed through a digital service.

Community driven tourism initiatives: Initiatives that seek to benefit from or address the impact of tourism on their respective communities.

Community Policing: Programs which assign policing teams to designated areas to maintain a permanent presence and provide proactive crime-prevention problem-solving solutions at the community level.

COVID- 19 Testing Sites: Funding for on-going testing of individuals at risk of contracting COVID-19 or for identification of possible community-spread events.

Dependent Caregiver Supports: Services to support informal caregivers, usually a family member, of a disabled or elderly person.

Domestic Violence Programs: Programs and services to support victims of domestic violence.

Economic & Workforce Development: Programs which focus on skill development for individuals or businesses to increase their competitiveness.

Eviction support or legal aid: Services which provide individual support to those facing eviction or other proceedings which jeopardize their housing status.

Food Access Programs: Programs to provide nutritious food to individuals and families experiencing food insecurity.

Household Financial Counseling: Programs to provide eligible households with financial advice and assistance, particularly those households which experienced adverse economic impacts as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Housing Access: Services to assist those facing homelessness or housing instability.

Housing Navigation Services: Services focused on moving houseless individuals and families into permanent housing by providing temporary living facilities while case managers assist with securing employment, public benefits, health services, shelter, and housing.

Immigrant Services: Programs to provide assistance to immigrants who cannot access traditional support programs and services.

Individual & Family Support: Services targeted to individuals and families facing domestic challenges which are not covered by traditional social service program.

Internet Access: Programs to provide internet access, including equipment and / or subsidies, to low-income families or under-served areas.

Internet Access & Digital Literacy: Programs for individuals to improve their comprehension of the digital environment to expand their employment opportunities and general understanding of 21st century technology as it relates to their daily life.

Mental & Behavioral Health Support: Programs and services for individuals who lack access to mental and behavioral programs through traditional pathways.

Policing Alternatives/Crisis Response Team: Programs to provide non-law enforcement responses to situations where an individual or household is experiencing a mental crisis.

Public Health: Responses to the adverse public health impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic, especially those adverse impacts to individuals and families.

Public Safety: Programs and services to improve safety and well-being of targeted communities.

Small Business Grants or Technical Assistance: Support programs, including financial support, for small businesses which suffered adverse economic impacts as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Substance Abuse or Misuse Treatment: Abuse is the use of medication without a prescription and in a way other than prescribed. Misuse involves not following medical instructions but not for the purposes of abuse.

Weed and Seed Programs: Community-based policing strategy which aims to prevent, control, and reduce violent crime, drug abuse, and gang activity in designated high-crime neighborhoods

Workforce Training & Skill Building: Programs to help individuals improve existing skills or learn new skills to increase their competitiveness in the labor market.

Wrap Around Services for Homeless or At-Risk Households: Wrap-around service delivery is a team-based, collaborative case management approach to provide comprehensive services that are individual or family-oriented.

Vulnerable Populations: Populations at greater risk for poor health, limited access to healthcare, and reduced life expectancy. Their health needs are complex, intersecting with social and economic conditions they experience. Individuals in vulnerable populations are also likely to have one or more physical and/or mental health conditions.